WHERE IS IT?

Nestled in the beautiful North Yorkshire valleys, surrounded by sweeping hillsides and breath-taking scenery, you'll find a very special wellness hub... 'The Tree Relaxation Retreat'.

The Tree was recently named as one of the 'Top 20 retreats in the world' by The Times newspaper. Despite the well deserved grand accolades, it's very humble and homely and sits beautifully amongst nature in Pickering, North Yorkshire. A perfect fit for this Yoga retreat indeed.

This is your invitation to join me at this magical, luxury, wellbeing gem of the North, for my Summer Yoga Retreat:

Rest and Rejuvenate

SUMMER YOGA RETREAT

THE TEACHER

Adele Wills of Adeles Yoga

Yoga teacher

You'll enjoy Yoga with me each day; morning and night, with free time in between to do as you feel. I teach Hatha Yoga, and I blend Yin, Restorative, Breathing and Meditation techniques, all wrapped in kindness. The mantra that I teach by is 'to have no shoulds, to have no expectations, to be welcome just as you are'. When we let go into that place within, we rest and then gently rejuvenate.

Rest and Rejuvenate

The invitation within the retreat

The retreat is called 'Rest and Rejuvenate', which is the invitation from the moment you arrive. To step away from your day-to day life and give time and space for your deep-self to rest and restore. From that place of rest we're able to tap into the Summer Sun abundance and energy and gently rejuvenate.

You'll enjoy a summer cocktail of yoga, relaxation, and celebration of you just as you are. It's important for you to know up-front that you can do as much or as little as you like. Between yoga sessions and dining, you're able to explore the area (we have great walks on the doorstep) or dive into that book you've been saving, or flit between the facilities, or all of the above! It's all there for you to dip in and out of as you wish.
